

TREK

June 17th 2008

Science in Sport Press Release

For immediate Release

Scienceinsport-Trek Riders Bibby, Fletcher & Creber Selected for World MTB Championships

The Great Britain Team has announced its line-up for the 2008 World Mountain Bike Championships, at Val di Sole in Italy between the 15th - 22nd June and included in the team are Scienceinsport-Trek Under 23 riders Ian Bibby, David Fletcher and Ross Creber.

All the riders are part of the British Cycling Academy programme and go in to these championships only a month after competing in the European Championships where Bibby after getting in the lead group on lap 1 suffered a mechanical at the end of lap 1/beginning of lap 2 and dropped back into the 30s and then stormed through the field to finish in an excellent 9th place. David Fletcher in his first outing at an Under 23 championship finished in very good 27th place. Full details of Euros can be found at http://www.britishcycling.org.uk/web/site/BC/gbr/EventReports2008/20080516_xc_euros.asp

Last weekend all three riders competed in the Elite MTB World Cup at Fort William where Bibby finished a career best 39th place, Fletcher 67th and Creber 73rd. For a report on the 3 riders check out the following links http://www.britishcycling.org.uk/web/site/BC/mtb/EventReports2008/20080606_fort_william_world_cup_gb_friday.asp

http://www.britishcycling.org.uk/web/site/BC/mtb/EventReports2008/20080607_fort_william_gb_academy.asp

The men's Under 23 race is on Friday 20th June.

For further information please contact:

SiS (Science in Sport) Limited
Tel.: 01254 246060
Email: teamsis@scienceinsport.com

